

REFUGEE WEEK 2010

Refugees' Australian Stories. A project by Researchers for Asylum Seekers

Refugees have been making Australia their home for many years and have contributed to our country in myriad ways. Have you ever wondered about their journeys to Australia? How they feel when they arrive and how their lives unfold?

Using images and the spoken and written word, Refugees' Australian Stories tells the compelling stories of refugees from around the world who have made Australia their home.

To read their stories visit www.ras.unimelb.edu.au and to listen go to www.nembc.org.au

Direct queries about this project to Nikola:
nikolabalvin@yahoo.com.au

"Refugees and migrants are wonderful people... They really deserve to be respected and to be given opportunities. They have a lot of skills, ideas and experiences and views to contribute to this beautiful country."

Yusuf Omar, Somalia. Arrived in 1999

Researchers for Asylum Seekers
Spread Knowledge, Not Fear